

Module Description/Syllabus

☒ BE
 ☐ IM
 ☐ HM
 ☐ CfPS

i

page 1 of 3

Module	Project Management & Seminar			Module-Number
Course Title	- Project Management - International Seminar			Overall grade weighting (in %)
Recommended alternative modules or courses
Course of Studies	Business Studies
Examination No. (SuP)				valid SER
Mode of Study	☒ full-time ☐ part-time
Study Cycle	☒ Bachelor ☐ Master
Frequency	☒ winter term ☐ summer term ☐ each semester
Language Competence Level and Course code SAP	☐
Responsible for the module	Prof. Dr. Kunze
Lecturer/s	Prof. Dr. Kunze
Typ of course	☐ compulsory ☒ optional
Mode of delivery	In person
Language of instruction	☒ English ☐ German		Level of course	4th semester
Teaching Methods	Lectures, Exercises, Group Work, Case Studies			Duration	1 semester
Work parameters	contact hours in lecture form	exercises (hours)	self-studies (hours)	total (hours)
	eLearning (hours)	examination preparation (hours)	Transfer (hours)	Units ("UE")
Number of participants min./max.	10 / 30		ECTS-Points	Volume	(hours per semester week)
			8		6
Use for other studies

Prerequisites/ Required competencies	Competencies gained through the HNU Business studies programme (1st – 3rd semester) or equivalent qualifications acquired elsewhere
Learning Outcome 1) Knowledge 2) Skills 3) Responsibility and autonomy Description eight EQF Levels and Learning Outcome (1-3)	Subject-Specific Competence: Students are able to - independently plan, carry out, monitor, and document projects - independently prepare academic papers (seminar paper). Methodological Competence: Students are able to apply methods - of project management, and - of academic writing. Self-Competence: Students are able to research relevant methods of project management and academic writing in academic literature and to independently familiarize themselves with new methods based on existing literature. Furthermore, they are capable of applying what they have learned to concrete problem statements. Social Competence: Students are able to work both independently and responsibly as well as collaboratively in teams (small groups).
Content	Each semester, the following activities are carried out in small groups: - one practice-oriented project is conducted and documented, and - an initial academic paper (seminar paper) is prepared. In the course Project Management (4 hours per week), - introductory methods of project management are taught. - additional methods are independently researched, prepared, and presented by the students. - the respective projects are planned and managed in small groups. In the course Seminar (4 hours per week), - the fundamentals of the philosophy of science are reviewed and discussed. - further details are independently researched and applied by the students. - seminar papers (= project results) are developed and presented in small groups.

Module Description/Syllabus

i

page 3 of 3

Particular admission requirements (if applicable)
Curriculum semester, in which the student has to be mandatorily registered for the first attempt of examination
Assessment method(s)	generally conducted as a portfolio assessment
Assessment criteria	min. 50% of achievable points
Required reading resources	Larson, E.W., Clifford, F.G.: Project Management, McGraw-Hill Education, Columbus - neueste Auflage
	Popper, Karl: All Life is Problem Solving, Routledge, London
	Chalmers, A.F.: What is this Thing Called Science, University of Queensland Press, St. Lucia – neueste Auflage
Additional (module) information
Document Version
Document date
Document was created by
Valid from	01.10.2026
Updated		by save send		